11. Railside Industrial Park Inc. (RSIP), is a business corporation incorporated pursuant to the laws of the Province of Alberta with a registered office at #4 - 4002 9th Avenue North, Lethbridge, Alberta. At all material times, Aitkens was the sole director and sole voting shareholder of RSIP.

12. Legacy, SRC, SRE, RSC and RSIP are collectively referred to as the Related Entities. At all material times, Aitkens was the sole directing mind of each of the Related Entities. Each of the Related Entities, in carrying out the activities hereinafter set out, was acting on the direction of, or as agent, representative and/or alter ego of, Aitkens, with his full knowledge and consent.

Contraventions of clause 27(1)(a) and subsection 58(1) of The Securities Act, 1988 (the Act), as was in force at the relevant time

Legacy

13. From in or around 2005 and continuing thereafter, Legacy and Aitkens traded in securities of Legacy with residents of Saskatchewan and other Canadian provinces.
14. At various times in 2005, 2006 and 2007, Legacy issued, and Aitkens circulated, three Offering Memoranda (respectfully referred to as Legacy OM1, Legacy OM2 and Legacy OM3) which offered units for purchase to residents of Saskatchewan. Each unit consisted of one Class B Non-Voting Common Share in Legacy and one 6% fixed rate, redeemable bond in Legacy.
15. From in or around 2005 to in or around 2006, in connection with Legacy OM1, Aitkens sold, and Legacy issued, approximately 26,615 redeemable bonds and approximately 26,615 non-voting shares in Legacy (the Legacy OM1 Shares and Bonds) to residents of Saskatchewan and raised approximately $2,661,500 from said sales.
16. From in or around 2006 to in or around 2007, in connection with Legacy OM2, Aitkens sold, and Legacy issued, approximately 10,666 redeemable bonds and approximately 10,666 non-voting shares in Legacy (the Legacy OM2 Shares and Bonds) to residents of Saskatchewan and raised approximately $1,066,600 from said sales.
17. From in or around 2007 to in or around 2008, in connection with Legacy OM3, Aitkens sold, and Legacy issued, approximately 4,405 redeemable bonds and approximately 4,405 non-voting shares in Legacy (the Legacy OM3 Shares and Bonds) to residents of Saskatchewan and raised approximately $440,500 from said sales.
18. In carrying out the activities outlined in paragraphs 13 – 17, Aitkens solicited and sold securities to residents of Saskatchewan for valuable consideration and thereby traded in securities in the Province of Saskatchewan.
19. Aitkens has never been registered as a dealer pursuant to the Act. There were no exemptions available from the requirement to register as a dealer for some of the trades engaged in by Aitkens. Therefore, in carrying out the activities stated in paragraphs 13 – 17, Aitkens contravened clause 27(1)(a) of the Act, as was in force at the relevant time.
20. The trades engaged in by Aitkens referred to in paragraphs 15 – 17, related to securities that had not previously been issued and, as such, related to “distributions” as defined in the Act.

21. Neither Legacy nor Aitkens has ever filed a preliminary prospectus or a prospectus with the Financial and Consumer Affairs Authority of Saskatchewan (the Authority) in relation to the distributions and no receipts have been issued by the Director, Securities Division of the Authority (the Director) for the same.
22. Reports of trades with respect to the distributions of the Legacy OM1 Shares and Bonds, the Legacy OM2 Shares and Bonds and the Legacy OM3 Shares and Bonds (Legacy's Reports) were filed with the Authority on or about December 28, 2011.
23. There were no exemptions available from the prospectus requirement for some of the trades engaged in by Aitkens, as claimed in Legacy's Reports, and therefore, Aitkens contravened subsection 58(1) of the Act.

SRC and SRE

24. From in or around 2007 to in or around 2009, Aitkens traded in securities of SRC and SRE with residents of Saskatchewan and other Canadian provinces.
25. On or about October 1, 2007, SRC issued, and Aitkens began circulating, an Offering Memorandum (the SRC OM) offering 6% redeemable bonds in SRC for purchase at a price of $100 per bond. The minimum subscription per investor was 100 bonds.
26. On or about October 1, 2007, SRE issued, and Aitkens began circulating, an Offering Memorandum (the SRE OM) offering Class B Common Shares in SRE for purchase at a price of $0.01 per share. Entitlement to subscribe for shares in SRE under the SRE OM was dependent upon a subscription for bonds under the SRC OM.
27. From in or around 2007 to in or around 2009, in connection with the SRC OM, Aitkens sold, and SRC issued, approximately 41,752 redeemable bonds in SRC (the SRC Bonds) to residents of Saskatchewan and raised approximately $4,175,200 from said sales.
28. From in or around 2007 to in or around 2009, in connection with the SRE OM, Aitkens sold, and SRE issued, approximately 238,577 non-voting shares in SRE (the SRE Shares) to residents of Saskatchewan and raised approximately $2,385.77 from said sales.
29. In carrying out the activities outlined in paragraphs 24 – 28, Aitkens solicited and sold securities to residents of Saskatchewan for valuable consideration and thereby traded in securities in the Province of Saskatchewan.
30. Aitkens has never been registered as a dealer pursuant to the Act. There were no exemptions available from the requirement to register as a dealer for some of the trades engaged in by Aitkens. Therefore, in carrying out the activities stated in paragraphs 24 – 28, Aitkens contravened clause 27(1)(a) of the Act, as was in force at the relevant time.
31. The trades engaged in by Aitkens, referred to in paragraphs 27 and 28, related to securities that had not previously been issued, and as such, related to "distributions" pursuant to the Act.

32. None of Aitkens, SRC nor SRE has ever filed a preliminary prospectus or a prospectus with the Authority in relation to the distributions of the SRC Bonds or the SRE Shares and no receipts have been issued by the Director for the same.
33. Reports of trades with respect to the distributions of the SRC Bonds and the SRE Shares (SRC/SRE's Reports) were filed with the Authority on or about March 10, 2010.
34. There were no exemptions available from the prospectus requirement for some of the trades engaged in by Aitkens, as claimed in SRC/SRE's Reports, and therefore Aitkens contravened subsection 58(1) of the Act.

RSC and RSIP

35. In or around 2008 Aitkens traded in securities of RSC and RSIP with residents of Saskatchewan and other Canadian provinces.
36. On or about March 3, 2008, RSC issued, and Aitkens began circulating, an Offering Memorandum (the RSC OM) offering 7% redeemable bonds in RSC for purchase at a price of $100 per bond. The minimum subscription per investor was 100 bonds.
37. On or about March 3, 2008, RSIP issued, and Aitkens began circulating, an Offering Memorandum (the RSIP OM) offering Class B Common Shares in RSIP for purchase at a price of $0.10 per share. The minimum subscription per investor was 100 shares.
38. In or around 2008, in connection with the RSC OM, Aitkens sold, and RSC issued, approximately 20,579 redeemable bonds in RSC (the RSC Bonds) to residents of Saskatchewan and raised approximately $2,057,900 from said sales.
39. In or around 2008, in connection with the RSIP OM, Aitkens sold, and RSIP issued, approximately 20,579 non-voting shares in RSIP (the RSIP Shares) to residents of Saskatchewan and raised approximately $2,057.90 from said sales.
40. In carrying out the activities outlined in paragraphs 35 – 39, Aitkens solicited and sold securities to residents of Saskatchewan for valuable consideration and thereby traded in securities in the Province of Saskatchewan.
41. Aitkens has never been registered as a dealer pursuant to the Act. Therefore, in carrying out the activities in paragraphs 35 – 39, Aitkens contravened clause 27(1)(a) of the Act, as was in force at the relevant time.
42. The trades engaged in by Aitkens, referred to in paragraphs 38 and 39 related to securities that had not previously been issued, and as such, related to “distributions” pursuant to the Act.
43. None of Aitkens, RSC nor RSIP has ever filed a preliminary prospectus or a prospectus with the Authority in relation to the distributions of the RSC Bonds or the RSIP Shares and no receipts have been issued by the Director for the same.

44. Reports of trades with respect to the distributions of the RSC Bonds and the RSIP Shares (RSC/RSIP's Reports) were filed with the Authority on or about March 10, 2010.
45. There were no exemptions available from the prospectus requirement for some of the trades engaged in by Aitkens as claimed in RSC/RSIP's Reports, and therefore, Aitkens contravened subsection 58(1) of the Act.

Contraventions of section 55.1 of the Act

46. The Respondents, directly or indirectly, engaged or participated in acts or courses of action relating to securities that each knew or reasonably ought to have known perpetrated a fraud on purchasers of the Legacy OM1 Shares and Bonds, the Legacy OM2 Shares and Bonds, the Legacy OM3 Shares and Bonds, the SRC Bonds and/or the SRE Shares, particulars of which are as follows:

Particulars of Fraud with respect to Legacy Monies

- (a) Legacy OM1 was issued for the stated purpose of raising funds to invest in specific lands located west of Calgary, Alberta (the Legacy Lands). The stated plan was to acquire the Legacy Lands and then possibly develop them in order to provide a return to investors.
- (b) Legacy OM1's stated long-term objective was to maximize the value of the Legacy Lands. It provided four possible plans in order to do so, none of which included removing funds from Legacy to invest elsewhere.
- (c) Legacy OM2 was issued for the stated purpose of raising funds to acquire and develop the Legacy Lands. The stated plan was to acquire the Legacy Lands and then possibly develop them.
- (d) Legacy OM2's stated long-term objective was to employ one of four possible plans in order to provide a return to investors, none of which included removing funds from Legacy to invest elsewhere.
- (e) Legacy OM3 was issued for the stated purpose of raising funds to make the scheduled option fee payment on the Legacy Lands, pay a portion of the operational fees for the following 12 months, pay fees to Eyelogic Systems Inc., and provide unallocated working capital for Legacy.
- (f) Legacy OM3's stated long-term objectives were to obtain the necessary approvals to subdivide the Legacy Lands, complete the servicing of the lots on the Legacy Lands, and pay all of Legacy's debts.
- (g) From in or around 2005 to in or around 2008, Legacy raised, through the sale of securities by Aitkens, who utilized Legacy OM1, Legacy OM2 and Legacy OM3 during said sales, approximately $4,168,600 from Saskatchewan residents. Legacy did not use the funds raised by Aitkens in furtherance of the purposes outlined in Legacy OM1, Legacy OM2 or Legacy OM3. The funds raised in connection with Legacy OM1, Legacy OM2 and Legacy OM3 were diverted by Legacy, through Aitkens' direction, for purposes unrelated to the objectives stated in Legacy OM1, Legacy OM2 and Legacy OM3. Details of these diversions are as follows:

The 064 Diversions

- (i) From in or around 2007 to in or around 2008, through a series of transactions, Legacy, through Aitkens' direction, diverted approximately $10,614,880 of funds raised through Legacy OM1, Legacy OM2 and/or Legacy OM3 to 064, for the sole use and benefit of Aitkens (the 064 Diversions). No consideration was provided to Legacy in exchange for the 064 Diversions.
- (ii) To date 064 has returned approximately $600,000 of the 064 Diversions to Legacy.
- (iii) Legacy, through Aitkens' direction, has neither sought nor received a return to Legacy of any of the remaining $10,014,880 from the 064 Diversions from either of 064 or Aitkens. The sole purpose of the 064 Diversions was to provide benefit to Aitkens.
- (iv) At no time did Legacy or Aitkens notify Legacy's shareholders or bondholders of the 064 Diversions.
- (v) None of Legacy OM1, Legacy OM2 or Legacy OM3 made any reference to any intent by Legacy or Aitkens to make the 064 Diversions.
- (vi) As a result of the 064 Diversions, holders of the Legacy OM1 Bonds and Shares, the Legacy OM2 Bonds and Shares and the Legacy OM3 Bonds and Shares have been deprived of the value of their investments and their economic interests have been severely prejudiced.
- (vii) As laid out in paragraphs 46(g)(i) – 46(g)(vi), each of 064 and Aitkens knowingly and willfully committed dishonest and deceitful acts which directly deprived holders of the Legacy OM1 Bonds and Shares, the Legacy OM2 Bonds and Shares and the Legacy OM3 Bonds and Shares of the value of their investments. As such, each of 064 and Aitkens has engaged or participated in acts or a course of action relating to securities that each knew or reasonably ought to have known perpetrated a fraud on a person or company, contrary to clause 55.1(b) of the Act.

The 075 Diversions

- (viii) In or around 2008, through a series of transactions, Legacy, through Aitkens' direction, diverted approximately $2,000,000 of funds raised through Legacy OM1, Legacy OM2 and/or Legacy OM3 to 075, for the sole use and benefit of Aitkens (the 075 Diversions). No consideration was provided to Legacy in exchange for the 075 Diversions.

- (ix) Legacy, through Aitkens' direction, has neither sought nor received a return to Legacy of any of the 075 Diversions from either of 075 or Aitkens. The sole purpose of the 075 Diversions was to provide benefit to Aitkens.
- (x) At no time did Legacy or Aitkens notify Legacy's shareholders or bondholders of the 075 Diversions.
- (xi) None of Legacy OM1, Legacy OM2 or Legacy OM3 made any reference to any intent by Legacy or Aitkens to make the 075 Diversions.
- (xii) As a result of the 075 Diversions, holders of the Legacy OM1 Bonds and Shares, the Legacy OM2 Bonds and Shares and the Legacy OM3 Bonds and Shares have been deprived of the value of their investments and their economic interests have been severely prejudiced.
- (xiii) As laid out in paragraphs 46(g)(viii) – 46(g)(xii), each of 075 and Aitkens knowingly and willfully committed dishonest and deceitful acts which directly deprived holders of the Legacy OM1 Bonds and Shares, the Legacy OM2 Bonds and Shares and the Legacy OM3 Bonds and Shares of the value of their investments. As such, each of 075 and Aitkens has engaged or participated in acts or a course of action relating to securities that each knew or reasonably ought to have known perpetrated a fraud on a person or company, contrary to clause 55.1(b) of the Act.

The Promissory Notes

- (xiv) Legacy, through Aitkens' direction, purported to make certain of the 064 Diversions and/or the 075 Diversions pursuant to an Investment Agreement, dated December 15, 2005, between Legacy and HCM (the HCM Investment Agreement). The HCM Investment Agreement was signed by Aitkens on behalf of each of Legacy and HCM.
- (xv) Pursuant to the HCM Investment Agreement, HCM was to invest funds taken from Legacy for Legacy's benefit. At various times in 2007 and 2008, HCM, through Aitkens' direction, and/or 064, through Aitkens' direction, issued promissory notes (collectively, the Promissory Notes) to Legacy, purportedly in relation to the HCM Investment Agreement.
- (xvi) Pursuant to a promissory note dated September 24, 2007 (Promissory Note 1), HCM promised to pay Legacy, the sum of $4,924,880 with interest at a rate of 7% per annum, simple interest, or 20% of the net profits after expenses, whichever is greater. Promissory Note 1 was signed by Aitkens on behalf of HCM and indicated a maturity date of December 31, 2011.

- (xvii) Pursuant to a promissory note dated September 24, 2007 (Promissory Note 2), HCM, through its affiliate, 064, promised to pay Legacy, the sum of $7,002,800 with interest at a rate of 6% per annum, simple interest, or 30% of the net profits after expenses, whichever is greater. Promissory Note 2 was signed by Aitkens on behalf of each of Legacy, HCM and 064 and did not indicate any maturity date.
- (xviii) Pursuant to a promissory note dated December 20, 2007 (Promissory Note 3), HCM, through its affiliate, 064, promised to pay Legacy, the sum of $2,723,000 with interest at a rate of 7% per annum, simple interest, or 20% of the net profits after expenses, whichever is greater. Promissory Note 3 was signed by Aitkens on behalf of HCM and indicated a maturity date of December 31, 2011.
- (xix) Pursuant to a promissory note dated December 20, 2007 (Promissory Note 4), HCM, through its affiliate, 064, promised to pay Legacy, the sum of $2,608,633 with interest at a rate of 6% per annum, simple interest, or 30% of the net profits after expenses, whichever is greater. Promissory Note 4 was signed by Aitkens on behalf of each of Legacy, HCM and 064 and did not indicate any maturity date.
- (xx) Pursuant to a promissory note dated June 27, 2008 (Promissory Note 5), HCM, through its affiliate, 064, promised to pay to Legacy, the sum of $1,350,000 with interest at a rate of 7% per annum, simple interest, or 20% of the net profits after expenses, whichever is greater. Promissory Note 5 was signed by Aitkens on behalf of 064 and indicated a maturity date of December 31, 2011.
- (xxi) Pursuant to a promissory note dated June 27, 2008 (Promissory Note 6), HCM, through its affiliate, 064, promised to pay Legacy, the sum of $1,100,000 with interest at a rate of 6% per annum, simple interest, or 30% of the net profits after expenses, whichever is greater. Promissory Note 6 was signed by Aitkens on behalf of each of Legacy, HCM and 064 and did not indicate any maturity date.
- (xxii) Pursuant to a promissory note dated December 30, 2008 (Promissory Note 7), HCM, through its affiliate, 064, promised to pay Legacy, the sum of $590,000 with interest at a rate of 7% per annum, simple interest, or 20% of the net profits after expenses, whichever is greater. Promissory Note 7 was signed by Aitkens on behalf of 064 and indicated a maturity date of December 31, 2011.
- (xxiii) The amounts and dates indicated on the Promissory Notes are not reflective of actual transactions between Legacy, HCM and/or 064.
- (xxiv) The amounts indicated on the Promissory Notes were not received by HCM or 064 or invested by HCM or 064 on Legacy's behalf.
- (xxv) Legacy, through Aitkens' direction, has never attempted to enforce the Promissory Notes.

- (xxvi) Neither HCM nor 064 has fulfilled any of the promises made in the Promissory Notes.
- (xxvii) The Promissory Notes were created by Legacy, through Aitkens' direction, HCM through Aitkens' direction, 064, through Aitkens' direction, and/or Aitkens personally for the sole purpose of concealing the 064 Diversions and/or the 075 Diversions.
- (xxviii) As laid out in paragraphs 46(g)(xiv) – 46(g)(xxvii), each of HCM, 064 and Aitkens knowingly and willfully committed dishonest and deceitful acts which indirectly deprived holders of the Legacy OM1 Bonds and Shares, the Legacy OM2 Bonds and Shares and the Legacy OM3 Bonds and Shares of the value of their investments. As such, each of HCM, 064 and Aitkens has engaged or participated in acts or a course of action relating to securities that each knew or reasonably ought to have known perpetrated a fraud on a person or company, contrary to clause 55.1(b) of the Act.

Water License Diversion

- (xxix) In or around October 2008, 075, through Aitkens' direction, purchased certain lands located in the Municipal District of Willow Creek, Alberta (the Willow Creek Lands), along with a water allocation (the Water Allocation) from a third-party for a purchase price of $825,000. The total cost to purchase the Willow Creek Lands, after adjustments, was $825,082.72.
- (xxx) On or about October 15, 2008, Legacy, through Aitkens' direction, entered into an agreement with 075 whereby Legacy agreed to purchase the Water Allocation from 075 for a purchase price of $950,000 (the Water License Agreement). All of the signature portions of the Water License Agreement were signed by Aitkens.
- (xxxi) Purportedly pursuant to the Water License Agreement, on or about October 15, 2008, Legacy, through Aitkens' direction, transferred $825,082.72 of funds raised through Legacy OM1, Legacy OM2 and Legacy OM3 to the trust account of legal counsel for 075, for 075's benefit (the Water License Diversion).
- (xxxii) Legacy received no consideration for the Water License Diversion.
- (xxxiii) Legacy, through Aitkens' direction, has never attempted to enforce the Water License Agreement, nor has it sought or received a return of any of the Water License Diversion.
- (xxxiv) 075, through Aitken's direction, has neither transferred the Water Allocation to Legacy nor provided any consideration to Legacy in exchange for the Water License Diversion.

- (xxxv) The sole purpose of the Water License Diversion was to provide a benefit to Aitkens.
- (xxxvi) The Water License Agreement was created by Legacy, through Aitkens' direction, 075, through Aitkens' direction and/or Aitkens personally for the sole purpose of concealing the Water License Diversion.
- (xxxvii) At no time did Legacy or Aitkens notify Legacy's shareholders or bondholders of the Water License Diversion.
- (xxxviii) None of Legacy OM1, Legacy OM2 or Legacy OM3 made any reference to any intent to purchase a Water Allocation in Willow Creek, Alberta, or to make the Water License Diversion.
- (xxxix) On or about July 27, 2010, 075, through Aitkens' direction, transferred title to the Willow Creek Lands to Harvest GP in exchange for $1.00.
- (xl) As a result of the Water License Diversion, holders of the Legacy OM1 Bonds and Shares, the Legacy OM2 Bonds and Shares and the Legacy OM3 Bonds and Shares have been deprived of the value of their investments and their economic interests have been severely prejudiced.
- (xli) As laid out in paragraphs 46(g)(xxix) – 46(g)(xl), each of 075, Harvest GP and Aitkens knowingly and willfully committed dishonest and deceitful acts which directly or indirectly deprived holders of the Legacy OM1 Bonds and Shares, the Legacy OM2 Bonds and Shares and the Legacy OM3 Bonds and Shares of the value of their investments. As such, each of 075, Harvest GP and Aitkens has engaged or participated in acts or a course of action relating to securities that each knew or reasonably ought to have known perpetrated a fraud on a person or company, contrary to clause 55.1(b) of the Act.

Particulars of Fraud with respect to SRC and SRE Monies

- (h) The SRC OM was issued for the stated purpose of raising funds to loan to SRE in order to assist SRE in acquiring approximately 923 acres of land located southwest of Calgary Alberta (the SRE Lands).
- (i) The SRC OM's stated long-term objectives were to raise up to $85,500,000 to lend to SRE, to manage the collection of interest and principle on the loan, and to provide a return to purchasers of the SRC Bonds.
- (j) The SRE OM was issued for the stated purpose of raising capital to acquire the SRE Lands.
- (k) The SRE OM's stated long-term objectives were to acquire the SRE Lands, complete the Area Structure Plan, develop the SRE Lands, sell them to a third party and provide a return to purchasers of the SRE Shares.

- (l) From in or around 2007 to in or around 2009, SRC and SRE raised, through the sale of securities by Aitkens, who utilized the SRC OM and the SRE OM, approximately $4,177,585.77 from Saskatchewan residents. SRC and SRE did not use the funds raised by Aitkens in furtherance of the purposes outlined the SRC OM and the SRE OM, respectively. The funds raised in connection with the SRC OM and the SRE OM were diverted by SRC and SRE, as the case may be, each through Aitkens' direction, for purposes unrelated to the objectives stated in the SRC OM and the SRE OM. Details of these diversions are as follows:

The SRE Land Purchase

- (i) On or about September 12, 2007, 075, through Aitkens' direction, purchased the SRE Lands from a third-party, [REDACTED] for $18,932,775 (approximately $20,512 per acre).
- (ii) As part of the purchase agreement, 075, through Aitkens' direction, agreed to use all reasonable efforts to cause a particular 58.8 acre section (the Homestead Parcel) to be subdivided into a separate title and transferred back to [REDACTED], free and clear of any encumbrances, at a price of $20,500 per acre. 075, through Aitkens' direction, also agreed to allow [REDACTED] to remain on the Homestead Parcel free of any charge until such time as the title was transferred to [REDACTED] or May 31, 2009, whichever came first.
- (iii) The SRC OM and the SRE OM stated that on or about September 28, 2007 SRE and 075 entered into an agreement (the SRE Purchase Agreement) whereby SRE agreed to purchase the SRE Lands from 075 for a purchase price of $64,715,000 (approximately $70,113 per acre). The obligation to sell 58.8 acres to [REDACTED] at a price of $20,500 per acre was not disclosed in the SRC OM or the SRE OM.
- (iv) Purportedly pursuant to the SRE Purchase Agreement, from in or around 2007 to in or around 2009, SRE, through Aitkens' direction, transferred a total of approximately $42,629,000 of funds raised through the SRC OM and the SRE OM from SRE to 075. In or around 2009, 075 returned approximately $349,000 of these funds to SRE, making the total of funds paid by SRE to 075, $42,280,000. SRE, through Aitkens' direction, also gave 075 a mortgage in the amount of $44,715,000 secured against the SRE Lands (the SRE/075 Mortgage). The total consideration provided by SRE, through Aitkens' direction, to 075 in exchange for title to the SRE Lands was approximately $86,995,000 ($94,252 per acre).
- (v) The SRC OM and the SRE OM stated that the appraised value of the lands as of January 26, 2007 was $27,062 per acre.
- (vi) Aitkens and 075, through Aitkens' direction, artificially inflated the purchase price payable under the SRE Purchase Agreement in order to allow Aitkens to arrogate funds raised through the SRC OM and the SRE OM.

- (vii) As a result of the actions of SRC, through Aitkens' direction, SRE, through Aitkens' direction, 075, through Aitkens' direction and Aitkens personally, and the facts outlined in paragraphs 46(l)(i) – 46(l)(vi), holders of the SRC Bonds and the SRE Shares have been deprived of the value of their investments and their economic interests have been severely prejudiced.
- (viii) As laid out in paragraphs 46(l)(i) – 46(l)(vii), Aitkens and 075 knowingly and willfully committed dishonest and deceitful acts which directly deprived holders of the SRC Bonds and the SRE Shares of the value of their investments. As such, each of Aitkens and 075 have engaged or participated in acts or courses of action relating to securities, that each knew or reasonably ought to have known perpetrated a fraud on a person or company, contrary to clause 55.1(b) of the Act.

The SRC/SRE Loan

- (ix) The SRC OM and the SRE OM stated that SRC and SRE expected to enter into a loan agreement, whereby SRC would agree to loan SRE anywhere from $871,574 to $76,700,324.
- (x) From in or around 2007 to in or around 2009, purportedly in connection with the loan agreement mentioned in subparagraph (ix), above, SRC, through Aitkens' direction, transferred to SRE approximately $44,958,800 of funds raised through the SRC OM (the SRC Transfer). The sole purpose of the SRC Transfer was to allow Aitkens, through 075, to arrogate funds raised through the SRC OM and the SRE OM.
- (xi) Pursuant to a promissory note dated October 26, 2008 (the SRC Promissory Note), SRE promised to pay SRC the sum of $50,000,000, together with interest at a rate of 6.5% per annum, from and including January 1, 2009. The SRC Promissory Note was signed by Aitkens on behalf of SRE and indicated a maturity date of December 31, 2012.
- (xii) On or about October 26, 2008, purportedly in consideration for the sum of $50,000,000, lent by SRC to SRE, SRE, through Aitkens' direction, gave SRC a mortgage secured against the SRE Lands (the SRC Mortgage). The SRC Mortgage states that it was given as collateral security for payment by SRE under the SRC Promissory Note. The SRC Mortgage was signed by Aitkens on behalf of SRE.
- (xiii) The SRC Promissory Note and the SRC Mortgage were created by SRC, through Aitkens' direction, SRE, through Aitkens' direction, 075, through Aitkens' direction, and/or Aitkens personally for the sole purpose of concealing the transactions outlined in paragraphs 46(1)(i) – 46(1)(vii), and 46(1)(ix) – 46(1)(x).

- (xiv) SRC, through Aitkens' direction, has never attempted to enforce the SRC Promissory Note or the SRC Mortgage, or to receive any return of the SRC Transfer from SRE.
- (xv) SRE, through Aitkens' direction, has not fulfilled its obligations under the SRC Promissory Note or the SRC Mortgage, nor has it returned of any of the funds from the SRC Transfer to SRC.
- (xvi) Because of the large sums of monies diverted by Aitkens out of SRC and SRE to 075 for Aitken's benefit, SRC and SRE are unable to develop the SRE Lands or increase their value in any way, and are otherwise unable to provide a return to holders of the SRC Bonds and the SRE Shares.
- (xvii) At all material times, it was evident that there would not be sufficient funds available to develop the SRE Lands, given the unjustified inflated purchase price paid for the SRE Lands and Aitkens was, or alternatively, ought reasonably to have been, aware of this fact.
- (xviii) As a result of the actions of SRC, through Aitkens' direction, SRE, through Aitkens' direction, and Aitkens personally, outlined in paragraphs 46(1)(ix) – 46(1)(xvii), holders of the SRC Bonds and SRE Shares have been deprived of the value of their investment and their economic interests have been severely prejudiced.
- (xix) As laid out in paragraphs 46(1)(ix) – 46(1)(xviii), Aitkens knowingly and willfully committed dishonest and deceitful acts which directly deprived holders of the SRC Bonds and the SRE Shares of the value of their investments. As such, Aitkens has engaged or participated in acts or courses of action relating to securities, that he knew or reasonably ought to have known perpetrated a fraud on a person or company, contrary to clause 55.1(b) of the Act.

The SRC Diversion

- (xx) In or around 2008 SRC, through Aitkens' direction, diverted approximately $2,000,000 of funds raised through the SRC OM to 075, for Aitkens' sole use and benefit (the SRC Diversion). No consideration was provided to SRC in exchange for the SRC Diversion.
- (xxi) SRC, through Aitkens' direction, has neither sought nor received a return of any of the SRC Diversion from either of 075 or Aitkens. The sole purpose of the SRC Diversion was to provide benefit to Aitkens.
- (xxii) At no time did SRC or Aitkens notify SRC's bondholders of the SRC Diversion.

- (xxiii) The SRC OM made no reference to any intent to make the SRC Diversion.
- (xxiv) As a result of the SRC Diversion, holders of the SRC Bonds have been deprived of the value of their investments and their economic interests have been severely prejudiced.
- (xxv) As laid out in paragraphs 46(1)(xx) – 46(1)(xxiv), each of 075 and Aitkens knowingly and willfully committed dishonest and deceitful acts which directly deprived holders of the SRC Bonds of the value of their investments. As such, each of 075 and Aitkens has engaged or participated in acts or a course of action relating to securities that each knew or reasonably ought to have known perpetrated a fraud on a person or company, contrary to clause 55.1(b) of the Act.

The SRE Diversion

- (xxvi) From in or around 2008 to in or around 2009, SRE, through Aitkens' direction, diverted approximately $1,490,000 of funds raised through the SRE OM to 064, for Aitkens' sole use and benefit (the SRE Diversion). No consideration was provided to SRE in exchange for the SRE Diversion.
- (xxvii) To date 064 has returned approximately $150,000 of the SRE Diversion to SRE.
- (xxviii) SRE, through Aitkens' direction, has neither sought nor received a return of any of the remaining $1,340,000 from the SRE Diversion from either of 064 or Aitkens. The sole purpose of the SRE Diversion was to provide benefit to Aitkens.
- (xxix) At no time did SRE or Aitkens notify SRE's bondholders of the SRE Diversion.
- (xxx) The SRE OM made no reference to any intent to make the SRE Diversion.
- (xxxi) As a result of the SRE Diversion, holders of the SRE Shares have been deprived of the value of their investments and their economic interests have been severely prejudiced.
- (xxxii) As laid out in paragraphs 46(1)(xxvi) – 46(1)(xxxi), 064 and Aitkens knowingly and willfully committed dishonest and deceitful acts which directly deprived holders of the SRE Shares of the value of their investments. As such, each of 064 and Aitkens has engaged or participated in acts or a course of action relating to securities that each knew or reasonably ought to have known perpetrated a fraud on a person or company, contrary to clause 55.1(b) of the Act.

Contraventions of subsections 44(3.1) and 55.11(1) of the Act, as was in force at the relevant time

Legacy

Marketing Materials

47. Legacy, through Aitkens' direction, made a number of statements in the marketing materials which Aitkens circulated in connection with Legacy OM1, Legacy OM2 and Legacy OM3, at various times from in or around 2005 to in or around 2008, that Legacy and Aitkens knew, or reasonably ought to have known, were misrepresentations, or were either misleading or untrue in material respects, at the time and in light of the circumstances in which they were made, or failed to include facts that were required or necessary to make the statements not misleading in material respects, at the time and in light of the circumstances in which they were made. These statements were made with the intention of effecting trades in shares and bonds of Legacy and had a significant effect on the market price or value of the Legacy OM1 Shares and Bonds, the Legacy OM2 Shares and Bonds and the Legacy OM3 Shares and Bonds. Therefore, Aitkens contravened subsections 44(3.1) and 55.11(1) of the Act, as was in force at the relevant time.
48. Particulars of some of these statements, made by Legacy, through Aitkens' direction, and passed along by Aitkens to investors, include, but are not limited to, the following:
- (a) that Legacy was giving investors the opportunity to participate at an "explosive growth stage that in the past has been available only to the wealthy individuals or large corporations";
  - (b) that the Bonds were secured by land;
  - (c) that investors would get returns in tax advantaged dividends;
  - (d) that the potential return on a $10,000 investment was approximately $39,717 or $44,000, depending which one of two scenarios was used;
  - (e) that the investors were backed up by actual value in the property, as opposed to a paper asset; and
  - (f) that the land would be developed; that it was not a question of "if" but "when".

Legacy OM1

49. Legacy, through Aitkens' direction and with the intention of effecting trades in shares and bonds in Legacy, made a number of statements in Legacy OM1, which Aitkens circulated, that Legacy and Aitkens knew, or reasonably ought to have known, were either untrue statements of material facts, or omitted material facts that were required to be stated or that were necessary to make the statements not misleading in light of the circumstances in which they were made. Therefore, Aitkens contravened subsection 44(3.1) of the Act, as was in force at the relevant time.

50. Particulars of some of these statements, made by Legacy, through Aitkens' direction, and passed along by Aitkens to investors, include, but are not limited to, the following:
- (a) that Legacy intended to acquire the Legacy Lands and then employ one of four strategies; namely, (1) holding the Legacy Lands in anticipation of an increase in value and selling without re-designation; (2) receiving re-designation approvals and then selling the Legacy Lands to a third party developer; (3) receiving re-designation approvals and entering into a joint venture agreement with a real estate developer to develop the Legacy Lands; or (4) receiving re-designation approvals and developing the Legacy Lands;
  - (b) that Legacy intended to fund the balance of the project costs with proceeds of sales of lots and homes;
  - (c) that Legacy's long-term objective was to raise $35,000,000 to invest in to Legacy Lands and the pursue one of the four plans, listed in clause (a), above;
  - (d) that Legacy intended to use the funds as stated, and would only reallocate funds for sound business reasons; and
  - (e) that the Legacy Lands were worth $27,000,000 as of June 25, 2005.
51. Particulars of some of the omissions made by Legacy, through Aitkens direction, and by Aitkens personally, include, but are not limited to, the following:
- (a) Legacy, through Aitkens' direction, and Aitkens personally failed to state that Legacy, through Aitkens' direction, intended to enter into the HCM Investment Agreement and to use the HCM Investment Agreement to transfer funds from Legacy's account to companies solely owned and operated by Aitkens, for Aitkens' sole use and benefit; and
  - (b) Legacy, through Aitkens' direction, and Aitkens personally failed to state, when referring to "Management Experience", that Aitkens was the sole director and shareholder of each of 064 and 075 and that he owned 75% of the voting shares in Foundation Capital Corporation (FCC).

Legacy OM2

52. Legacy, through Aitkens' direction and with the intention of effecting trades in shares and bonds in Legacy, made a number of statements in Legacy OM2, which Aitkens circulated, that Legacy and Aitkens knew, or reasonably ought to have known, were either untrue statements of material facts, or omitted material facts that were required to be stated or that were necessary to make the statements not misleading in light of the circumstances in which they were made. Therefore, Aitkens contravened subsection 44(3.1) of the Act, as was in force at the relevant time.
53. Particulars of some of these statements, made by Legacy, through Aitkens' direction, and passed along by Aitkens to investors, include, but are not limited to, the following:
- (a) that Legacy intended to employ one of four strategies and provide a return to purchasers of the Legacy OM2 Shares and Bonds. The four strategies were: (1) holding the Legacy Lands in anticipation of an increase in value and selling without re-designation or entering into the proposed area structure plan; (2) receiving re-designation approvals or entering into the proposed area structure plan and then selling the Legacy Lands to a third party developer; (3) receiving re-designation approvals or entering into the proposed area structure plan and entering into a joint venture agreement with a real estate developer to develop the Legacy Lands into a residential community; or (4) receiving re-designation approvals or entering into the proposed area structure plan and developing the Legacy Lands into a residential community;

- (b) that Legacy intended to use the funds as stated, and would only reallocate funds for sound business reasons;
  - (c) that the Legacy Lands were worth $6,300,000 as of March 22, 2006; and
  - (d) that Legacy had listed the key terms of all material agreements.
54. Legacy, through Aitkens' direction, and Aitkens personally failed to state, when referring to "Management Experience", that Aitkens was the sole director and shareholder of each of 064 and 075 or that he owned 75% of the voting shares in FCC.

Legacy OM3

55. Legacy, through Aitkens' direction, made a number of statements in Legacy OM3, which Aitkens circulated, that Legacy and Aitkens knew, or reasonably ought to have known, were either misleading or untrue in material respects, at the time and in light of the circumstances in which they were made, or failed to include facts that were required or necessary to make the statements not misleading in material respects, at the time and in light of the circumstances in which they were made. These statements had a significant effect on the market price or value of the Legacy OM1 Shares and Bonds, the Legacy OM2 Shares and Bonds and the Legacy OM3 Shares and Bonds. Therefore, Aitkens contravened subsection 55.11(1) of the Act.
56. Particulars of some of these statements, made by Legacy, through Aitkens' direction, and passed along by Aitkens to investors, include, but are not limited to, the following:
- (a) that Legacy intended to obtain the necessary approvals to subdivide the Legacy Lands, acquire the first 100 acres of additional Legacy Lands, complete the servicing of lots of the first phase of the project and then sell this part either as a whole or by sale of single subdivided parcels, in order to pay all of Legacy's debts, including amounts due to holders of the redeemable bonds, issued as a result of Legacy OM1, Legacy OM2 or Legacy OM3;
  - (b) that any remaining cash would be distributed to holders of shares in Legacy;
  - (c) that Legacy intended to use the funds as stated, and would only reallocate funds for sound business reasons;

- (d) that the Legacy Lands were worth $37,700,000 as of September 1, 2007; and
  - (e) that Legacy had listed the key terms of all material agreements.
57. Legacy, through Aitkens' direction, and Aitkens personally failed to state, when referring to "Management Experience", that Aitkens was the sole director and shareholder of each of 064 and 075 or that he owned 75% of the voting shares in FCC.

SRC/SRE

Marketing Materials

58. SRC, through Aitkens' direction, and SRE, through Aitkens' direction, made a number of statements in the marketing materials which Aitkens circulated in connection with the SRC OM and the SRE OM, that SRC, SRE and Aitkens knew, or reasonably ought to have known, were either misleading or untrue in material respects, at the time and in light of the circumstances in which they were made, or failed to include facts that were required or necessary to make the statements not misleading in material respects, at the time and in light of the circumstances in which they were made. These statements had a significant effect on the market price or value of the SRC Bonds and the SRE Shares. Therefore, Aitkens contravened subsection 55.11(1) of the Act.
59. Particulars of some of these statements, made by SRC, through Aitkens' direction, and SRE, through Aitkens' direction, and passed along by Aitkens to investors, include, but are not limited to, the following:
- (a) that there were plans for a premium or PGA Class 18 – 27 hole golf course, and an executive hotel and convention facility;
  - (b) that the investment featured solid return rates inside the RRSP's and secured by land, and investment returns paid in tax advantaged dividends;
  - (c) that there was a profit bonus for those who invested early;
  - (d) that the investors were 60% owners of the project; and
  - (e) that the average shareholder was projected to turn a $10,000 investment into approximately $42,000 and a $50,000 investment into approximately $210,000.

The SRC OM

60. SRC, through Aitkens' direction, made a number of statements in the SRC OM, which Aitkens circulated, that SRC and Aitkens knew, or reasonably ought to have known, were either misleading or untrue in material respects, at the time and in light of the circumstances in which they were made, or failed to include facts that were required or necessary to make the statements not misleading in material respects, at the time and in light of the circumstances in which they were made. These statements had a significant effect on the market price or value of the SRC Bonds. Therefore, Aitkens contravened subsection 55.11(1) of the Act.

61. Particulars of some of these statements, made by SRC, through Aitkens' direction, and passed along by Aitkens to investors, include, but are not limited to, the following:
- (a) that the net proceeds from the SRC OM would be loaned to SRE to allow it to acquire the SRE Lands and provide working capital to assist in the preparation of an area structure plan, and also to pay for all administration and operating expenses incurred by SRC in the conduct of its business;
  - (b) that SRE intended to create an area structure plan for the SRE Lands that included a residential community, a large hotel and convention centre, a championship golf course, retail sites and a wellness centre;
  - (c) that SRE intended to subdivide lots and sell them to multiple real estate developers; and
  - (d) that SRC had listed the key terms of all material agreements.
62. Particulars of some of the omissions made by SRC, through Aitkens direction, and by Aitkens personally, include, but are not limited to, the following:
- (a) SRC, through Aitkens' direction, and Aitkens personally failed to state that SRE had agreed to sell 58.8 acres of the SRE Lands to [REDACTED] at a price of $20,500 per acre;
  - (b) SRC, through Aitkens' direction, and Aitkens personally failed to state that there was no justifiable reason for the inflated purchase price SRE had agreed to pay for the SRE Lands; and
  - (c) SRC, through Aitkens' direction, and Aitkens personally failed to state, when referring to "Management Experience", that Aitkens was the sole director and shareholder of 075.

The SRE OM

63. SRE, through Aitkens' direction, made a number of statements in the SRE OM, which Aitkens circulated, that SRE and Aitkens knew, or reasonably ought to have known, were either misleading or untrue in material respects, at the time and in light of the circumstances in which they were made, or failed to include facts that were required or necessary to make the statements not misleading in material respects, at the time and in light of the circumstances in which they were made. These statements had a significant effect on the market price or value of the SRE Shares. Therefore, Aitkens contravened subsection 55.11(1) of the Act.
64. Particulars of some of these statements, made by SRE, through Aitkens' direction, and passed along by Aitkens to investors, include, but are not limited to, the following:
- (a) that SRE intended to create an area structure plan for the SRE Lands that included a residential community, a large hotel and convention centre, a championship golf course, retail sites and a wellness centre;

- (b) that SRE intended to subdivide lots and sell them to multiple real estate developers, and provide a return to purchasers of the SRE Shares; and
  - (c) that SRE had listed the key terms of all material agreements.
65. Particulars of some of the omissions made by SRE, through Aitkens direction, and by Aitkens personally, include, but are not limited to, the following:
- (a) SRE, through Aitkens direction, and Aitkens personally failed to state that SRE had agreed to sell 58.8 acres of the SRE Lands to [REDACTED] at a price of $20,500 per acre;
  - (b) SRE, through Aitkens direction, and Aitkens personally failed to state that there was no justifiable reason for the inflated purchase price SRE, through Aitkens direction, had agreed to pay for the SRE Lands; and
  - (c) SRE, through Aitkens direction, and Aitkens personally failed to state when referring to “Management Experience”, that Aitkens was the sole director and shareholder of 075 and sole director of SRC.

RSC/RSIP

Marketing Materials

66. RSC, through Aitkens direction, and RSIP, through Aitkens direction, made a number of statements in the marketing materials which Aitkens circulated in connection with the RSC OM and the RSIP OM, that RSC and Aitkens knew, or reasonably ought to have known, were either misleading or untrue in material respects, at the time and in light of the circumstances in which they were made, or failed to include facts that were required or necessary to make the statements not misleading in material respects, at the time and in light of the circumstances in which they were made. These statements had a significant effect on the market price or value of the RSC Bonds and the RSIP Shares. Therefore, Aitkens contravened subsection 55.11(1) of the Act.
67. Particulars of some of these statements, made by RSC, through Aitkens direction, and passed along by Aitkens to investors, include, but are not limited to, the following:
- (a) that the 4 year bond pays a guaranteed annual rate of 7%;
  - (b) that the investment is secured through the bond by a mortgage position on the property;
  - (c) that 80% of net profits are distributed to shareholders in the form of tax-efficient eligible dividends; and
  - (d) that it was projected that a $25,000 investment would become $41,000 in 3 to 4 years and a $100,000 investment would become $164,000 in 3 to 4 years.

The RSC OM

68. RSC, through Aitkens direction, made a number of statements in the RSC OM, which Aitkens then circulated, that RSC and Aitkens knew, or reasonably ought to have known, were either misleading or untrue in material respects, at the time and in light of the circumstances in which they were made, or failed to include facts that were required or necessary to make the statements not misleading in material respects, at the time and in light of the circumstances in which they were made. These statements had a significant effect on the market price or value of the RSC Bonds. Therefore, Aitkens contravened subsection 55.11(1) of the Act.

69. Particulars of some of these statements, made by RSC, through Aitkens direction, and passed along by Aitkens to investors, include, but are not limited to, the following:
- (a) that the majority of the net proceeds from the RSC OM would be loaned to RSIP to allow it to acquire certain lands located adjacent to the eastern town limits of the Town of Millet, Alberta (the RSIP Lands) and provide working capital to assist in the development of the RSIP Lands, and also to pay for all administration and operating expenses incurred by RSC in the conduct of its business;
  - (b) that RSIP intended to develop the lands into an industrial park;
  - (c) that RSC intended to collect interest from its loan to RSIP and provide a return to purchasers of the RSC Bonds; and
  - (d) That RSC had listed the key terms of all material agreements.
70. Particulars of some of the omissions made by RSC, through Aitkens direction, and by Aitkens personally, include, but are not limited to, the following:
- (a) RSC, through Aitkens direction, and Aitkens personally failed to state that there was no justifiable reason for the inflated purchase price RSIP had agreed to pay for the RSIP Lands; and
  - (b) RSC, through Aitkens direction, and Aitkens personally failed to state when referring to “Management Experience”, that Aitkens was the sole director and shareholder of 064 and sole director of RSIP.

The RSIP OM

71. RSIP, through Aitkens direction, made a number of statements in the RSIP OM, which Aitkens then circulated, that RSIP and Aitkens knew, or reasonably ought to have known, were either misleading or untrue in material respects, at the time and in light of the circumstances in which they were made, or failed to include facts that were required or necessary to make the statements not misleading in material respects, at the time and in light of the circumstances in which they were made. These statements had a significant effect on the market price or value of the RSIP Shares. Therefore, Aitkens contravened subsection 55.11(1) of the Act.
72. Particulars of some of these statements, made by RSIP, through Aitkens direction, and passed along by Aitkens to investors, include, but are not limited to, the following:
- (a) that the net proceeds from the RSIP OM would be used to acquire the RSIP Lands

- and continue with the development of the RSIP Lands;
- (b) that RSIP intended to develop the RSIP Lands into an industrial park and provide a return to purchasers of the RSIP Shares; and
  - (c) that RSIP had listed the key terms of all material agreements.
73. Particulars of some of the omissions made by RSIP, through Aitkens direction, and by Aitkens personally, include, but are not limited to, the following:
- (a) RSIP, through Aitkens direction, and Aitkens personally failed to state that there was no justifiable reason for the inflated purchase price RSIP had agreed to pay for the RSIP Lands; and
  - (b) RSIP, through Aitkens direction, and Aitkens personally failed to state, when referring to “Management Experience”, that Aitkens was the sole director and shareholder of 064 and sole director of RSC.

Contraventions of subsection 44(2) of the Act

74. In carrying out the activities indicated in paragraph 48(d), Aitkens, with the intention of effecting trades in shares and bonds of Legacy, gave written undertakings relating to the future value of said shares and bonds, contrary to subsection 44(2) of the Act.
75. In carrying out the activities indicated in paragraph 59(e), Aitkens, with the intention of effecting trades in bonds in SRC and shares in SRE, gave written undertakings relating to the future value of said shares and bonds, contrary to subsection 44(2) of the Act.
76. In carrying out the activities indicated in paragraph 67(d), Aitkens, with the intention of effecting trades in bonds in RSC and shares in RSIP, gave written undertakings relating to the future value of said shares and bonds, contrary to subsection 44(2) of the Act.

Contraventions of subsection 80.1(2) of the Act

77. Legacy, through Aitkens direction, distributed the Legacy OM2 Shares and Bonds from in or around 2006 to in or around 2007, in connection with Legacy OM2 and the Legacy OM3 Shares and Bonds from in or around 2007 to in or around 2008.
78. Legacy, through Aitkens direction, made the 064 Diversions after the distributions connected to Legacy OM2 commenced, but before they had been completed, and/or after the distributions connected to Legacy OM3 commenced, but before they had completed.
79. Legacy, through Aitkens direction, made the 075 Diversions after the distributions connected to Legacy OM3 commenced, but before they had been completed.
80. The 064 Diversions and the 075 Diversions were material changes in Legacy’s affairs.

81. Neither Legacy, through Aitkens direction, nor Aitkens amended Legacy OM2 or Legacy OM3 at any time to reflect these changes in its affairs, and as such, Aitkens contravened subsection 80.1(2) of the Act.
82. SRE, through Aitkens direction, distributed the SRE Shares from in or around 2007 to in or around 2009, in connection with the SRE OM.
83. On or about October 26, 2008 SRE, through Aitkens direction, gave 075 the SRE/075 Mortgage, secured against the SRE Lands. SRE, through Aitkens direction, gave 075 the SRE/075 Mortgage after the distributions connected to the SRE OM commenced, but before they had been completed.
84. The SRE/075 Mortgage is a material change in SRE's affairs.
85. Neither SRE, through Aitkens direction, nor Aitkens amended the SRE OM at any time to reflect this change in its affairs, and as such, Aitkens contravened subsection 80.1(2) of the Act.
