Dear Ms. Pastuch and Mr. Udemba:

The Saskatchewan Financial Services Commission appointed Commissioner Peter Carton, Commissioner Gordon Hamilton, and Commissioner and Vice Chairperson Paul Robinson as the Hearing Panel to hear the above noted matter as provided for in the Securities Act, 1988.

This Letter Decision will address the request for witnesses to appear by videoconference or “webex” technology, where their personal attendance would be a personal hardship or inconvenience. During the June 9, 2011 teleconference, both parties advised the Hearing Panel that they would support witnesses attending remotely with the use of these videoconferencing technologies.

As indicated during the teleconference on June 9, 2011, the Hearing Panel will permit a witness to attend by videoconference (or Webex), subject to the following conditions. First, the party intending to rely upon this method of appearance shall test the technology to ensure its reliability prior to the hearing. In this regard, some degree of cooperation between the parties will be expected and necessary, even though each party is responsible for making their own arrangements in this regard. The Hearing Panel reserves its right to abruptly halt (and reschedule) the testimony of a particular witness if the method of communication is not satisfactory to the Hearing Panel, so that credibility can be adequately assessed.

Second, the parties must give notice to the other party, and to the Commission Secretary, not later than June 30, 2011, of the names and locations of all witnesses that each party intends to call and rely upon, including the means of appearance if other than in-person attendance. Both parties are cautioned that contentious testimony from a remote witness may result in a delay in the proceedings if the Hearing Panel becomes concerned with the limitations arising from the videoconferencing in assessing credibility issues. The Securities Commission counsel shall provide to the Respondents, along with each witness' name, a summary of the evidence expected to be forthcoming from each witness being called. Both parties are to ensure that the Commission Secretary is also notified which witnesses will be attending through the use of videoconference technology.

If either party requires a witness to receive a subpoena to compel attendance, please direct those requests to the Commission Secretary as soon as possible.

This is a unanimous decision of the Hearing Panel.

DATED at Regina, Saskatchewan, on June 20, 2011.
