General Order 11-915 Designation Order Pursuant to Clause 11.1 (a.1) and an Exemption Pursuant to Section 160 of The Securities Act, 1988

On February 29, 2016 the Financial and Consumer Affairs Authority of Saskatchewan issued General Order 11-915 Designation Order Pursuant to Clause 11.1 (a.1) and an Exemption Pursuant to Section 160 of The Securities Act, 1988 (General Order 11-915) which designates derivatives to be securities for the purposes of National Instrument 31-103 Registration Requirements, Exemptions and Ongoing Registrant Obligations (NI 31-103) and exempts derivatives trading facilities from the requirement to be recognized as derivative trading facilities under the Act. This order is temporary pending changes to securities legislation.

This order was necessitated by the derivatives amendments made to The Securities Act, 1988 on February 10, 2016.
