ORDER

WHEREAS on December 16, 2010, disclosure documents were sent to interim counsel for the Respondents, on specific conditions and terms;

AND WHEREAS the Respondents have not yet reviewed the disclosure materials;

AND WHEREAS the Respondents and the Securities Division legal counsel made representations before the Commission panel in a teleconference on February 1, 2011;

AND WHEREAS the Respondents have subsequently provided emailed correspondence outlining their request for less restrictive conditions and terms than permitted by the Securities Division legal counsel;

AND WHEREAS the Respondents have indicated that they are at an impasse in their discussions with the Securities Division legal counsel concerning agreement on the specific conditions and terms attached to the disclosure;

NOW THEREFORE IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the disclosure documents currently in the possession of the Respondents' interim counsel, as well as any further disclosure documents produced by the Securities Division legal counsel through mutual agreement with the Respondents, shall be subject to the following conditions and terms:

Apart from the information obtained from the accounting offices of Frank Garrett, CMA, the Respondents shall only use the disclosure material for the sole purpose of preparing for and conducting the hearing before the Commission. The Respondents shall not release the disclosure materials to any member of the public or press, with the exception of legal counsel and financial advisors to the Respondents, and of potential witnesses and expert witnesses involved in the preparation of the hearing. The Respondents shall obtain written undertakings from any individual, except legal counsel, to whom they release the disclosure materials confirming that the individual will abide by the terms of this Order.

AND IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, in the event there are individuals not included within the scope of this Order to whom the Respondents believe it is necessary to release the disclosure materials for the purposes set out herein, the Respondents shall submit a request in writing to the Commission Secretary identifying the names of the proposed individual(s) to receive the disclosure materials along with the reasons in support of the request (with a copy of the request to the Securities Division legal counsel), for the Commission's consideration.

DATED at Regina, Saskatchewan, on February 15, 2011.

Gordon D. Hamilton
Commissioner
