

In the Matter of
*The Securities Act, 1988

and

In the Matter of
Dominion Bitcoin Mining Company Ltd.
Jason Edmund Dearborn,
Peter Scott Voldeng, and
Ronald James Frederick Gibbon

DECISION ON REQUEST FOR COSTS

Conference Call Held: December 15, 2014

Before: Mary Ann McFadyen, Panel Chairperson
Justice Eugene Scheibel
Justice Larry Kyle
(collectively referred to as “the Panel”).

Appearances: Dallas Smith, representing staff of Financial and Consumer Affairs
Authority of Saskatchewan

Peter Voldeng, Respondent

Jason Dearborn, Respondent

Royal Reporting Services

Decision dated: December 15, 2014

After hearing the submission of Mr. Dearborn and Ms. Smith, the Panel made the following decision:

Decision of the Panel:

It is the unanimous decision of the Panel that there is no jurisdiction in The Securities Act, 1988 or the Regulations to order costs as requested, therefore the application for costs is dismissed.

DATED at Regina, Saskatchewan on December 15, 2014.

Mary Ann McFadyen
Chairperson of the Hearing Panel
Financial and Consumer Affairs Authority of Saskatchewan